IL SOLDO EDITORE

Il Soldo editore is an initiative of the Samperi printing house created to encourage the publishing sector. Thanks to the technical experience in the sector and the collaboration of external partners, it aims to help authors with editing, graphic distribution and promotion services.

Il Soldo editore's project is inspired by the publishing experience of the Samperi printing house of the 70s / 80s led by Aurelio Samperi: Il Soldo. Useful weekly. The latter was a free and denouncing newspaper, it gave the opportunity to write to all those who wanted to tell the lights and shadows of the city of Messina. Between 1976 and 1985 it became the beating heart of independent journalism in the entire province, surpassing the circulation of 10,000 weekly copies.

Now, in the wake of a continuous evolution, with the publishing house Il Soldo editore we want to dedicate ourselves specifically to understanding the needs and ideas of the authors.

With us, you are always sure to see your books published with absolute quality, diligence and with an economic advantage and personal satisfaction.
